

Press Release

47/2017

Falling sea level caused volcanos to overflow

A Team of international researches found new connections between the solid earth and the climate system

06 July 2017/Kiel. Throughout the last 800,000 years, novel component for earth system research to better understand the climate evolution at times of glacial sea level changes.”

Reference: